

The Jean Hailes Foundation for Women's Health presents:

Cardiovascular disease in women and the importance of risk perception

For Health Professionals

Attend in person at the RACP or attend via videoconference

Presenters:

Professor Helena Teede, Endocrinologist
Director of Research - The Jean Hailes Foundation for Women's Health
Head of Diabetes Unit - Southern Health

Dr Mandy Deeks, Psychologist
Deputy Director of Research - The Jean Hailes Foundation for Women's Health

Topic includes:

- Identifying and addressing the risk factors for CVD in women
- The health professionals role in the prevention of CVD in women
- What does Health Related Behaviour mean?
- Identifying risk and managing behaviour change

Points for this activity have been applied for from the RACGP QA&CPD Program. 2 points/hour Total CPD Points: 4 (Category 2)

ACRRM points have been applied for

Date

Tuesday 28 April 2009

Time

Refreshments served from 6.00pm

Videoconference:

6.15pm AEST (connection time)
– 8.30pm

Venue

RACP Building
2/417 St Kilda Road
MELBOURNE
(cnr St Kilda & Toorak Rds)

In partnership with:

Supported by:

This program is also supported by the Australian Government Department of Health & Ageing.

The Jean Hailes Foundation for Women's Health accepts donations and support on the basis of full academic freedom to speak and write with complete independence.

RSVP

Register to attend at RACP Melbourne on 03 9927 7777 or email events@telehealth.com.au or online at www.telehealth.com.au
No registration fee.

Can't make it to RACP? Attend via videoconference!
Individual and site registrations on 03 9927 7777 or email events@gthevents.com or online at www.gthevents.com
Individual registrations are FREE
Videoconference sites: $250+GST per site*

* The first 20 sites to register will be funded by The Foundation, excluding call costs. NB: No site is eligible for Foundation funding if they do not have registered attendees.